

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: March 20, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 1038 - HB 1200

This bill, if enacted, will make genetic predisposition or familial history of violence or criminal conduct inadmissible as a defense. The bill also provides that a prior history of violence by the other person would be insufficient to constitute imminent danger of death or serious bodily injury to support a defense of self-defense.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures of $48,530 for incarceration*. This estimate is based upon one conviction every three years receiving a sentence of not less than 10 years.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

*Section 9-6-119, TCA, requires that: For any law enacted after July 1, 1986, which results in a net increase in periods of imprisonment in state facilities, there shall be appropriated from recurring revenues the estimated operating cost of such law.
